PERMISSION TO PARTICIPATE IN HEALTHY RELATIONSHIP/VIOLENCE PREVENTION WORKSHOP

Safe Dates - An Evidence-Based Program to Prevent Dating Violence

Our evidence-based program, Safe Dates, is a curriculum that educates youth and adolescents on how to identify and prevent dating violence. Through engaging sessions, students will learn and discuss the causes of dating violence, how they can help a friend in an abusive relationship, common gender stereotypes regarding dating violence, and important prevention techniques.

What is Dating Violence?

Dating violence encompasses more than simply physical aggression. It also includes psychological, sexual, and emotional harm in a relationship, and it can occur both in person and digitally. Unfortunately, dating violence is a relatively common issue among high school students – 21 percent of high school females and 10 percent of high school males who dated in high school reported instances of dating violence in 2015, according to the CDC.

Disclosure of Abuse

The topic of this workshop can sometimes lead to a camper discussing abuse or assault they have experienced, or that someone else in the class or school has experienced. If a student were to disclose abuse this workshop or in any setting during Camp, the YWCA Staff or Volunteers will have to take action according to YWCA Glendale's Child Abuse Mandatory Reporting policy and state law.

You have the opportunity to request, in writing, that your child not attend the class. This request shall be valid for entire camp session in which it is submitted, and you may withdraw your request at any time.

YWCA Child Abuse/Mandatory Reporting guidelines and the full Safe Dates Curriculum are available for your review at the YWCA Administrative Office.

*Note: If you do not wish your student to participate in the healthy relationship/violence prevention workshop, you must return the slip below, signed by you, indicating your preference, by the first day of camp.
